Survey: Engine failure – where do YOU land?

Your engine fails over an uninhabited area. You can't glide to any airports, roads, clearings, or fields. Your only options are a stand of tall pine trees or a lake below you. It's summer, and the water temperature in the lake is probably 60 degrees. You have seconds to decide. Which choice is the "lesser of two evils"?

Lake? or Trees?

KSEE Airport Manager's Report

Gillespie Field Ground Vehicle Driver Training

- Over 800 drivers trained!
- FAA Western Pacific Region pleased with our roll out and participation numbers!
- They are closing the action item for driver training, following is our current status on each action item:

30

KSEE Training Program Status Report

- Develop standardized Ground Vehicle Training Program that includes Non-Movement Driver Training and Gate Access Procedures and Movement Area Driver Training. Afterwards, the programs will be placed on the airport's web site. ✓
- Evaluate potential fine structure: ✗
- Emphasize VPDs with Airport Users such as the Gillespie Pilot Association and Gillespie Field Development Council as well as an email to users and poster for FBOs. ✓
- Continue 8-foot fencing as airfield projects are complete. ✗
- Address a safety plan to add a north and south section of the VSR.
 - This would create a continuous VSR around the entire airfield, eliminating runway crossings at I7/35. ✓
 - Applying for grant to complete western section (phase 1, phase 2) ✗

Punish or Educate?

“...enforcement tools available and used by the FAA do not effectively address the shortcoming of airmen who are in a category herein defined as underinformed.

The under-informed airman also suffers from lack of awareness and generally commits violations which are not deliberate and, in fact, are considered inadvertent.

This category of airman must be the recipient of a balanced form of sanction with consideration of the merits of retribution as well as restitution.

The existing program does not embrace this important dimension.

A balanced alternative procedure would reach the needs of the airman involved and as a result would satisfy safety in air commerce and the public interest.”
